CORAM : R.M.S.KHANDEPARKAR, J

DATED : 21st December, 2004.

P.C.

1. None present. Perused the petition and the annexures thereto.

2. There is absolutely no substance in the petition. Merely because the petitioners have filed the Writ Petition St.No.9699 of 2002 and later on it was withdrawn with liberty to file a fresh petition, the pendency of the fresh petition itself would not result in restraining the authorities from acting in accordance with the provisions of law. Undisputedly, there was no order passed restraining the authorities from taking any action in the matter during the pendency of the said petition. Being so, there is absolutely no case for proceeding against the respondents for contempt of Court. The petition is therefore rejected.
